The Ashford Teaching Alliance is currently recruiting Specialist Leaders of Education (SLEs) to carry out School-to-School Support and assist with CPD training in the following areas:

Leadership and Management	Academies and Academy Transition; Assessment; Leadership of Continuing Professional Development; School Business Management and Financial Management; Leadership of Curriculum
Pupil Achievement	Art; Closing the Gap; Drama; Design and Technology; Early Years; English; Geography, History; Information and Communication Technology; Maths; Modern Foreign Languages; Music; Phonics; Physical Education; Personal, Social and Health Education; Religious Education; Science; Special Educational Needs; Support for the Most Able Pupils
Quality of Teaching	Initial Teacher Training and Newly Qualified Teacher Development
Behaviour and Safety:	Behaviour and Discipline; Attendance

SLEs help other leaders so that they can lead their own teams and improve practice through using a high level coaching or facilitation approach, drawing on their knowledge and expertise in their specialist area.

Who can apply?

You must:

- Have been in a leadership role in any type or phase of school for at least 2 years
- Have a successful track record of working effectively with schools and/or in your own school
- Have the support of your Headteacher to be released for up to 15 days per year

Please send applications to office@ashfordteachingalliance.co.uk by 30 April 2018

“Being an SLE has got the very best out of my interpersonal skills, my emotional intelligence and professional growth. It’s a privilege and a challenge to support fellow colleagues from other schools and has added a real freshness to my career.”
