Managing Behaviour in the Classroom

In this basic behaviour management course we shall be looking at the fundamental "principles and practices" of managing behaviour that must be applied to all behaviour.

We will be focusing on the "3 pillars" that "underpin" any plan for behaviour - the need for "consistency" a "non-confrontational approach" and "relationship" and then we will look at the most effective "4 point plan for behaviour" that can be adapted by all teachers to manage all behavioural situations.
